

Experimental Design and Variables

State the variables and possible sources of errors in the following experiments:

1. How the height from which an object falls affect its speed?
2. Is the following statement true? "The more weight a toy car the faster it will roll down a slope."
3. What is the link between the starting height of a car and its speed at the bottom of a slope?